

Lithium battery flaw detection equipment

Overview

Lithium batteries are becoming more and more ubiquitous in portable electronics and electrical devices. Their diverse form-factors and favourable energy storage characteristics make them the prime choice of batteries in many applications. Yet the high density of stored energy along with the combustion characteristics. The main objective of the project is to evaluate the feasibility of the detection of lithium batteries transported as checked baggage using the security screening equipment and processes in operation at airports. The project. Notwithstanding that screeners shall primarily focus their attention on identification of prohibited items from a security perspective, there is a need to investigate possible technical, operational and regulatory solutions to. The main outcome of the project is to assess the valid and cost-effective technical, operational and regulatory solutions to be used for. Four technical tasks have been identified to cover the scope of the activity and fulfil the project objectives: 1. Task 1: Review of state-of-the-art solutions, development of test plan and protocol and consultation with Stakeholders 2. Task.
